

Metal Panels & Facades

Custom Metal Panel Applications

Enhance the look and functionality of walls with unique and intricate patterns, add privacy to public spaces, or create green walls for added warmth and aesthetic with metal panel solutions. Customize your panels with ready-made patterns or your own design, and our CNC machines will precisely cut your design giving you an outstanding result. Available in multiple materials and a variety of support options, these panels can accommodate any commercial project's needs.

Metal Panels & Facades

Custom Metal Panel Applications

Metal Paneling & Facades Add safety and aesthetics to your commercial project with perforated and custom laser cut panels. Our custom panels are suitable for both interior and exterior applications as wind protection and security, while also being visually appealing. Whether acting as a wind repellent, adding elegance to a floor or elevated walkway, or sheltering the public eye from secure areas, metal panel walls are sure to compliment any commercial structure.

Metal Panels & Facades

Custom Metal Panel Applications

Custom Commercial Fencing & Gates provide protection, privacy, aesthetics, and security. Sightline Commercial Solutions can engineer and fabricate unique and custom fencing and gates utilizing state of the art laser capabilities with a variety of finishes and patterns. It can even be made of glass.

Metal Panels & Facades

Custom Metal Panel Applications

Green Screens are constructed with wire meshes or rope serving as a surface for plant growth. The ability for natural growth provides unique shading and many similar benefits as with other wall materials but has the added benefit of reaching beyond those including air pollution mitigation and building surface temperature control.

